

Publication : Trinity Mirror

Region : Chennai

Date : Nov 23, 2009

Unique education meet on Nov 25 at Taj

Chennai, Nov. 23: iDiscoveri Education, a social enterprise with the vision to revive the education system in India, will be organising 'School of Tomorrow', one of India's few conferences focused on making learning better in schools.

Dr. Howard Gardner, renowned psychologist from Harvard Graduate School of Education, who is also recognised world over as the father of the multiple intelligences theory, will deliver the keynote address at the conference to be held at Taj Coromandel, on November 25.

Renowned personalities from these domains like Dr. M. Anandakrishnan, Chairman, Board of Governors, IIT Kanpur; Vineet Joshi, Chairman, CBSE, Dr. N Vijayan, Chairman, Matriculation Schools Association of Tamil Nadu, Vinita Bali, CEO, Britannia, Arun Jain, CEO, Polaris, Rajendra Pawar, Chairman, NIIT and Prof. James Tooley of Univ. of Newcastle will be addressing the seminar.

Ashish Rajpal, MD, iDiscoveri Education said, "School of Tomorrow is conceptualized to challenge the way traditional education methods and schools have been working so far. The conference aims at making a concentrated effort to understand closely the role and responsibility of three critical groups in our society, Government & Public Institutions, Private Corporate Sector and the Education Domain.

The conference will be attended by more than 300 experts connected with education, research, socio-political personalities and corporate leaders from across India.